

Discover your career as a professional Nanny

Nannies are fun, passionate and determined

They work with families to support them and help shape their children's futures. The bonds they form are some of the strongest and long lasting. Nannies take you on adventures.

If you're thinking of becoming a nanny, then Coram PACEY can help you ensure you've got all the skills and knowledge needed to get started and build a thriving career.

"Nannying is great because children have the reassurance and familiarity of their own home, so transitions are purely about building a trusting relationship with me"

What does the job involve?

- 1 Providing a safe, fun and stimulating environment for the children while planning and supporting play and learning and development activities
- 2 Doing nursery and school runs, and taking children to appointments and activities and organising play dates with other children
- 3 Preparing meals and cleaning children's bedrooms, bathrooms and playrooms
